

1. AIMS

The 10434NAT Diploma of Christian Ministry and Theology course is designed to train students to live an effective Christian life, effectively communicate the Gospel and serve the community either in the workplace or in Christian ministry work.

This course will train leaders and potential leaders in a range of Christian ministry activities relevant to the local church, Christian organisation and workplace.

2. OUTCOMES

This course will give students:

- An increased capacity to hear from God and follow the leading of the Holy Spirit
- A deepened understanding of the Bible and its application
- Further skills in theological reasoning and ethical decision-making
- Enhanced communication (especially in communicating biblical concepts), conflict-resolution and people management skills
- Enhanced pastoral, leadership and ministry skills with a heart for God and people
- Opportunities for the development of specialised ministry skills

3. OVERVIEW

This qualification is fully competency based and while knowledge and some aspects of competency are assessed within the realms of each subject, completion of ministry projects demonstrating all areas of competency will need to be completed to graduate.

The student will obtain practical experience by engaging in field experiences at their local church, Christian ministry or community service organisation. This practical experience is to be gained in an area that complements in-class assessment and the immediate goals of the student.

A full-time student would normally undertake a study load of 5 subjects at any one time. Individual subjects may be delivered on a week by week basis or by intensives.

4. DURATION

Two years full time. Part time options are also available.

If students do not have satisfactory English language skills Unity College Australia offers English language courses available to enable the student to reach the required entry level.
- Students should have computing skills including the ability to use a word processing package at an elementary level.

Students should in good conscience be able to subscribe to the Unity College Australia statement of beliefs that are found in the tenets of mainstream Christianity.

Students evidencing concerns in the area of Language, Literacy and Numeracy will be provided with assistance as appropriate.

8. TRAINING PROCESS

The course entails an average of 5-6 hours per week of class contact and private study time for each subject. Overseas Students must be in class for a minimum of 20 hours/week. College obligations and co-curricular activities, including college community participation, are additional hours.

Co-Curricular activities are integral to the Course with extra hours of field related engagement, such as a retreat each semester, various projects with local churches, and annual short-term missions typically of about 10 days. Fundraising projects for these Missions assists in achieving more than one competency for the course.

Unity College Australia used a wide variety of training methods appropriate the course context.

Unity College Australia adopts adult-learning principles, and all students are treated as adult learners. Therefore participants in this program are expected to take charge of their own learning process. It is expected that each selected participant will be committed to meeting the requirements of the course and will attend all relevant classes and activities including co-curricular activities, and complete all work required for assessment on time

It is expected that all program participants will have access to a computer. This is mandatory for successful course completion.

9. COURSE COMPETENCIES

Australia has a system of national standardisation of training for many industry areas. This system is implemented through the use of training packages (groups of courses) and individual units of competency within a course. This system enables students to get automatic recognition across all accredited government and private training organisations for relevant studies undertaken at any one of them. A number of elective competencies fall into this category.

There are no nationally recognised courses or competencies developed for Christian Ministry and Theology at this point in time. This course, however is common to more Christian Colleges than any other accredited course in Australia and as such relevant units would have automatic recognition. The 6 core units of competency fall into this category.

The following core competencies are achieved through completion of the core units from the Diploma of Christian Ministry and Theology:

National Code	Competency
CMTTHE501A	Analyse and interpret theological beliefs in the light of current thinking
